Volume XV

Salisbury High School

Salisbury, Maryland

We, the BEACON staff of 1965, hope that you will consider this year-book "a prized possession" and that you may captivate the memories of the good old days at Salisbury High School and enjoy them as these pages are turned.

Our last year has definitely been one filled with many experiences which shall never be forgotten. The joys, sorrows, fun, and hard work are all a part of our memories. Whether one be a student of yesterday or of today, a feeling of pride will always be with him when he looks back on this splendid school year.

It is sad but true that this will be the last time that the class of '65' will come together as a whole class; but in later years we shall be able to turn back these pages just as you will, and recall the many dreams and smiles of '65.' We shall be content knowing that we have done the task we were called upon to do. However, we sincerely feel that your satisfaction with this volume will be our compensation and with this thought in mind we proudly present you the key to unfold the pages of the BEACON of 1965.

In Appreciation

An open textbook, a wealth of practical experiences, an eager student and an understanding teacher - these are the essential ingredients for a successful home economics department. We the class of '65 feel we have all three.

For the past 50 years the chief member of our home economics department, Mrs. Jeanette P. Chipman, who has been stressing exactness, scholarship and neatness, guided many promising students in Home and Family living.

Since the beginning of her teaching career, she has stimulated interest in the field of elementary education as an elementary teacher and principal. In our high school she has greatly improved our home economics department by being an inspiration to both faculty and students in making provisions for worth while opportunities for services.

Mrs. Chipman was educated in the schools of Salisbury, Maryland; graduated from Morgan College Annex, Lynchburg, Virginia; attended Hampton Institute, and Virginia State College where she received her B.S. and M.S. degrees in Home Economics Education. She has also done post graduate work at the following schools: Temple University, Goucher College, and Cornell University.

Along with her teaching, Mrs. Chipman has taught Evening Adult Classes, and Home Canning in many centers of Wicomico County during the summer. She is also an active advisor of NHA and FHA organizations on local, state and national levels. She has attended conventions held at Langston College, Langston, Oklahoma; Bennett College, Greensboro, North Carolina; Morgan State College, Baltimore, Maryland; Jackson, Mississippi; Prairie View College, Prairie View, Texas; Grambling College, Grambling, Louisiana; Pythian and Baptists Hotels, Hot Springs, Arkansas; Southern University, Baton Rouge, Louisiana, and Hotel Utah Motor Lodge, Salt Lake City, Utah. While in Salt Lake City, she visited the historical Mormon's Tabernacle and heard its famous celebrated choir. One of her most satisfying, and fruitful experiences is seeing the minds of the New and Future Home Makers of America work, develop and grow.

In August, 1961, she made a trip to Europe, visiting London, Amsterdam, Brussels, Coblenz, Heidelberg, Lucerne, Venice, Monica, Florence, Rome, Nice, Holland, Monte Carlo and Paris.

Like all well rounded individuals, Mrs. Jeanette P. Chipman, has developed interest in many fields. When she is not teaching, she enjoys reading, traveling, gardening, knitting, sewing, and participating in church and community activities.

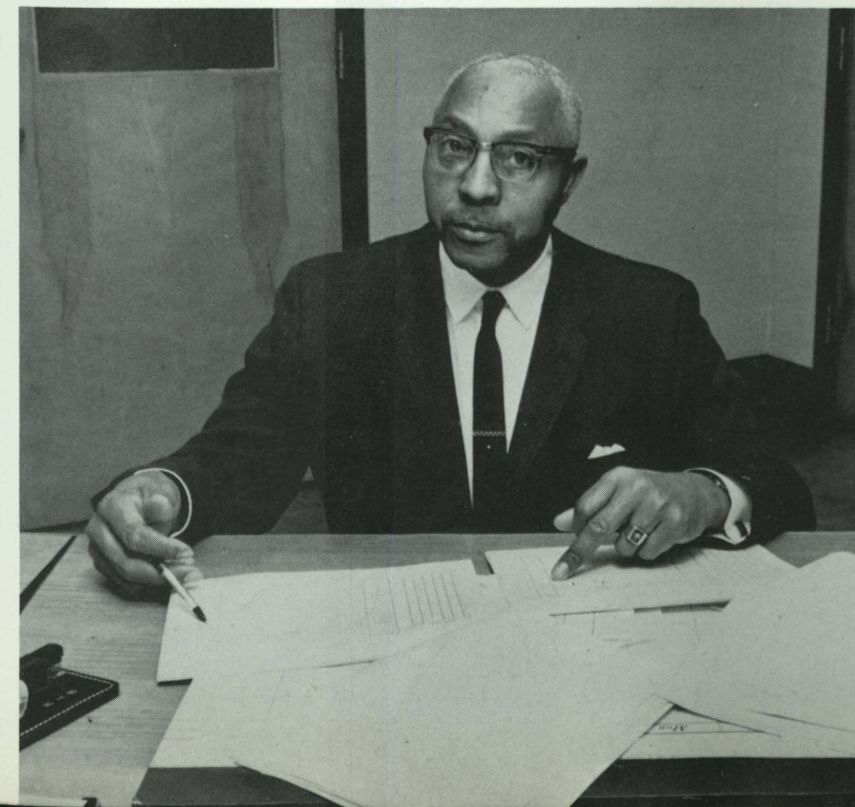

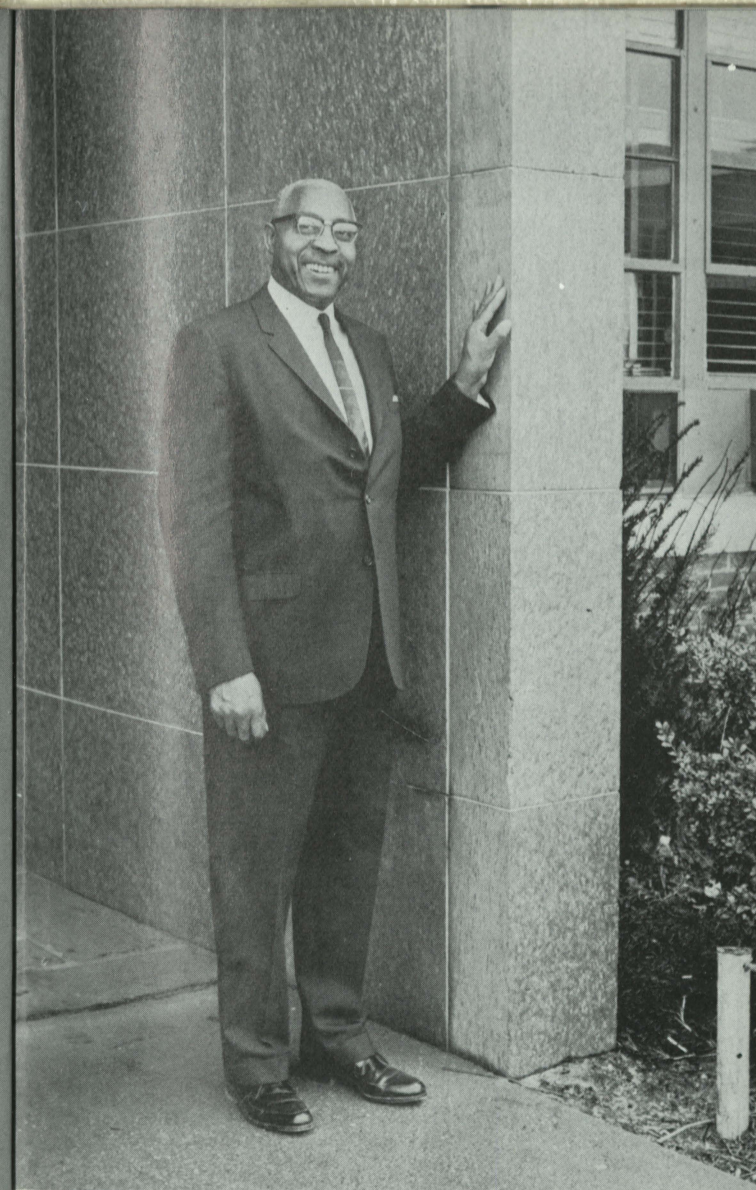

For devoted services and outstanding leadership, we the yearbook staff of 1965, wish to dedicate this yearbook to Mrs. Jeanette P. Chipman.

Our Principal

MR. RANDOLPH L. BROOKS

The Principal's Message

The step you are about to take is one of many leading to the "stairway of success."

A step is serviceable when it has been well constructed, put to use, able to stand the test, and seasoned with the times. The ever-present help of your parents, professional help from your teachers and determination plus stick-to-ive-ness on your part are the mortar ingredients combined in making this step a strong pillar on which to tread.

As you climb the stairway, forever look upward; for what is behind may be powerless to changes. Take from that you have gained only the richest experiences, the best of knowledge, and the greatest applicable techniques. Combine these with what you will learn on the way up and such will be, another of many, but sturdy steps of progress.

Add to the stairway by building your steps well. As you climb, make your steps pillars of learning, pillars of achievement, pillars of service, pillars of self-reliance, tolerance, loyalty, brotherhood, and thankfulness. At the very top of the stairs, there will be a door that stands ajar. Step inside; this is the "door to success."

At no time is this door to be shut. Let it remain ajar for your fellowman. It would do well to remember this.

Best wishes.

Randolph L. Brooks

FACULTY

A school may function properly only through efficient leadership and the faculty of Salisbury High School provide this leadership and the knowledge necessary for academic learning.

They help the student to grow both mentally and physically while at the same time they provide guidance when it is needed.

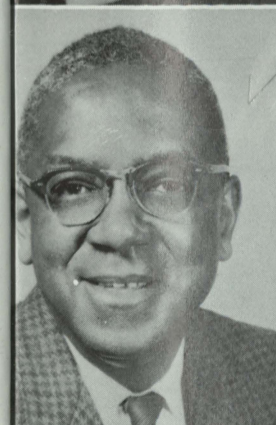

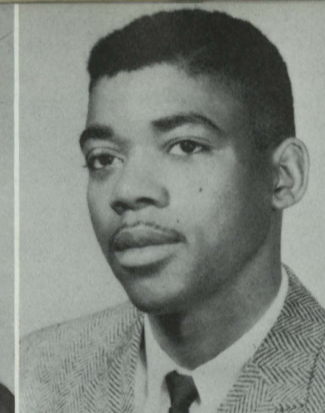

They are always available to administer extra help and advice. At times, they are called upon to serve beyond the call of duty. The members of the faculty freely contribute their time for sponsorship of clubs and organizations. They are indeed, a valuable asset to the students and therefore should be congratulated for their diligent services which they so wholeheartedly render to the students.

Class History

Like a young planted tree, the class of 1965 started its exciting, colorful, and adventurous survival of fitness.

As a tree is planted, we the future seniors of Salisbury High School, started out as freshmen.

It must be admitted that we were all timid and shy as a tree is when it sees its first beam of sunlight, but, we were anxious to get a better look at the sun's glorious rays. As the year ended, we were glad to say that many of our buds were beginning to show. Irvin Church, like a growing bud, displayed his talent by being one of the youngest members of the senior band. As we took a closer look, we found that Kennard Griffin was showing his talent as one of the members of the junior varsity basketball team.

The first branch of our tree grew very strong as we, the students were. We finally settled down to accept our important roles as sophomores. During this year many of joined various activities such as the "New Homemakers of America" and the "Monitorial Staff". We also observed that the school band had bloomed with many of our flowers. Among these were - Winifred Cottman, Johnny Church, Wayne Ringgold, Franklin Stanley, Vance Elbert, and Irvin Church, who proudly joined in the band activities. Stepping high in front of the band, we found beautifully colored flowers represented by Julia Nutter, Bernadette Pinkett, and Delores Dutton. Elvira Winder, Nancy Gordy, Florence Nichols, and Helena Jones were like freshly bloomed flowers as they added excitement to the year by cheering our teams to many victories. The most important event of this year was our "Career Day Program". During that day, conferences were held with different experts with whom we discussed our ambitions in life.

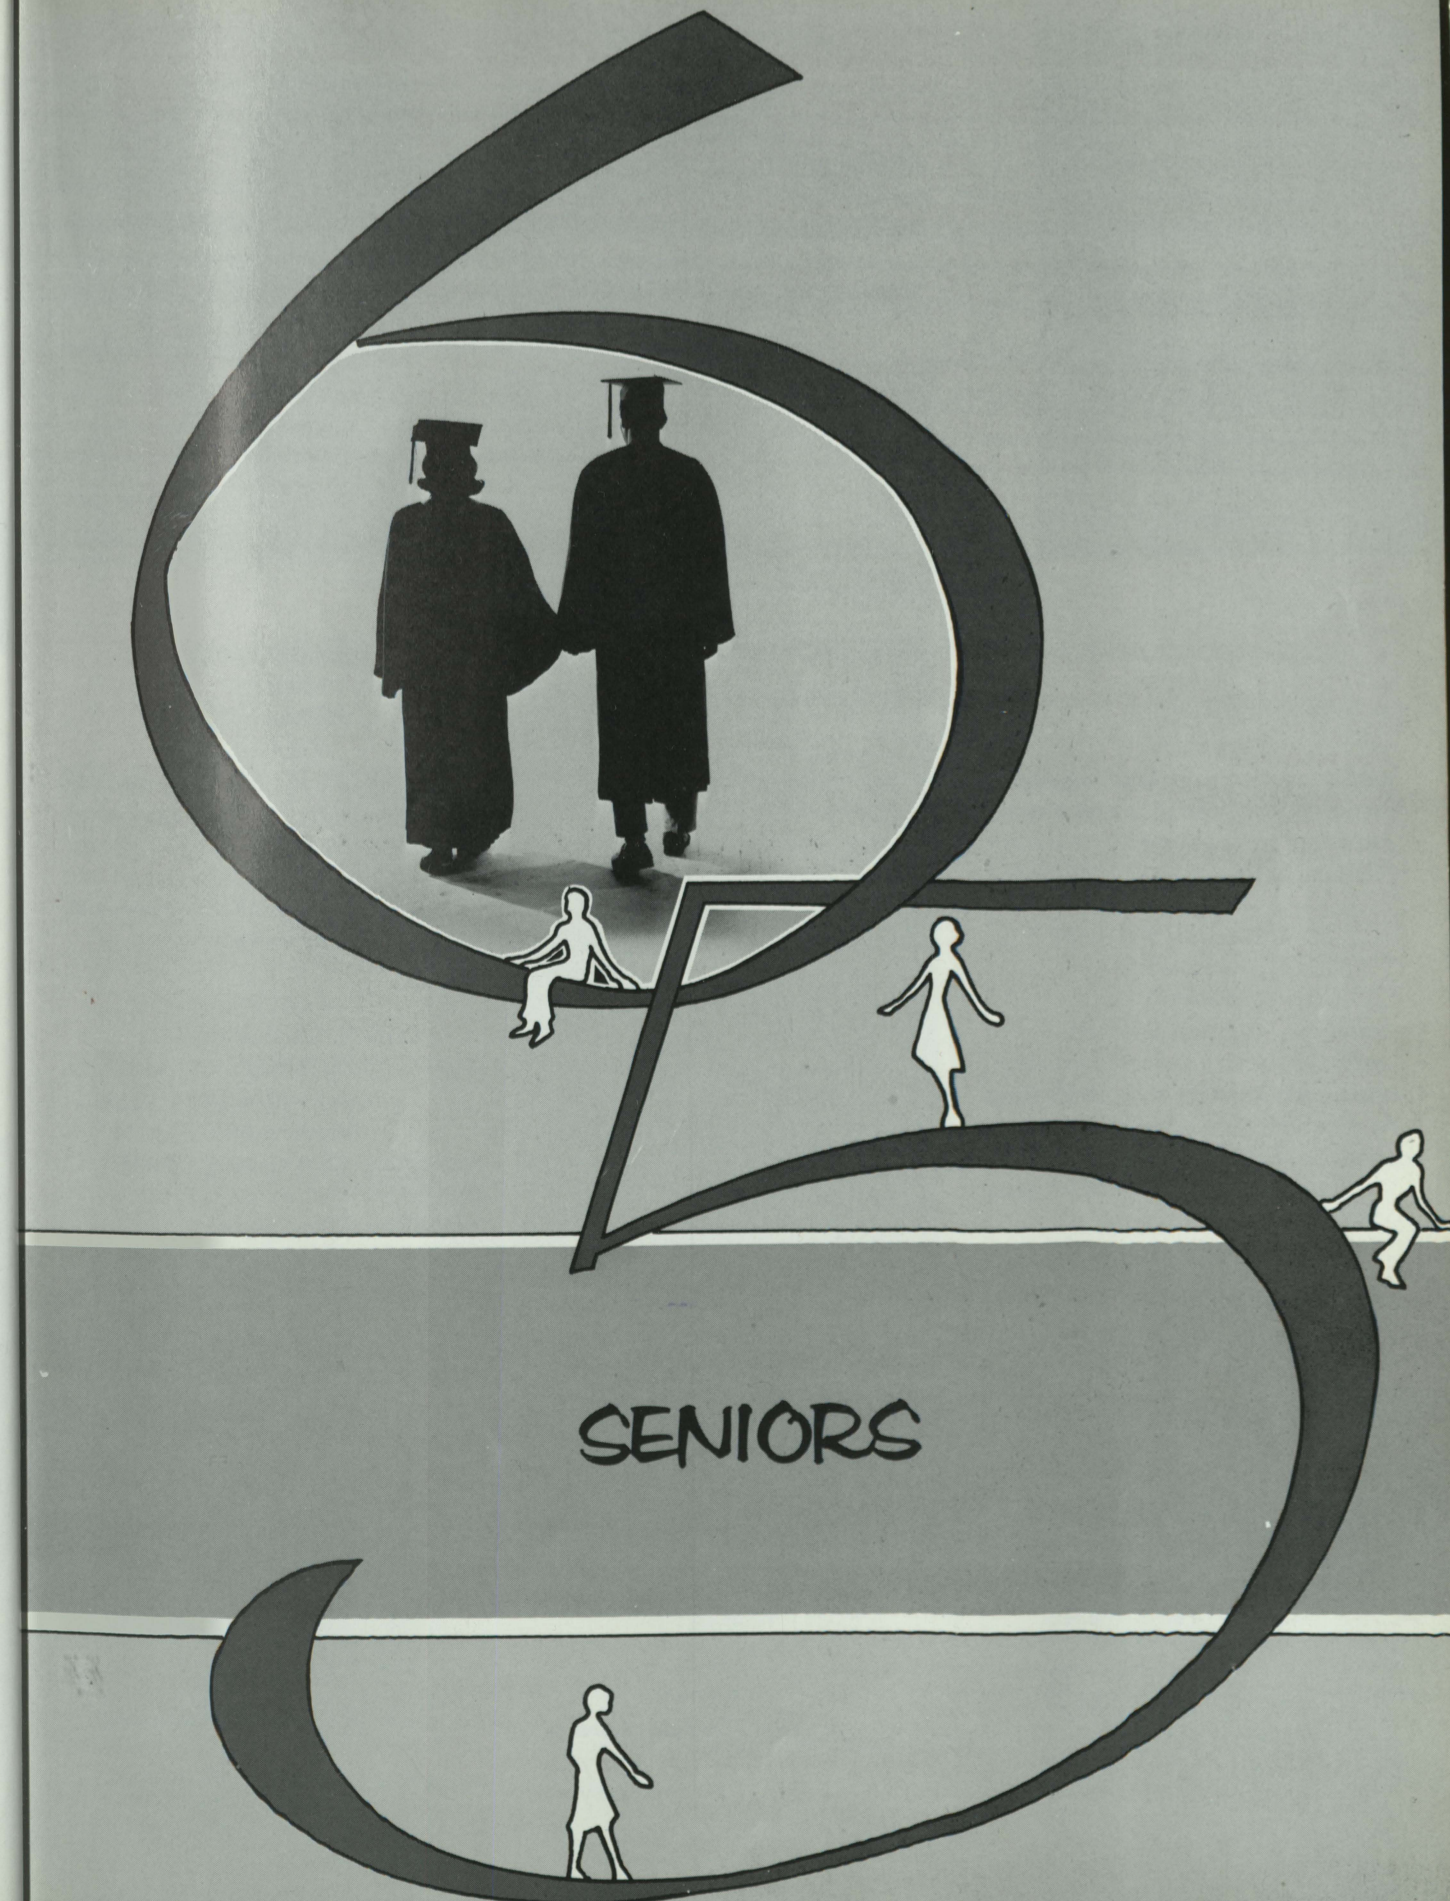

As the second branch of our tree sprouted, we became Juniors after two endless years of hard work and concentration. Many of our students, after daily nourishments and watering sprouted very well. This was shown by Gwendolyn Wooten as she took part in the plays, "Who Killed Aunt Caroline"? and "Two Dates For Tonight." Mary Parker, Wanda Wright, and Josephine Morton became members of the National Honor Society; and Christel Hitch attended "Girls' State." The most exciting and colorful highlight of the year was the Junior-Senior Prom which we as juniors, attended for the first time.

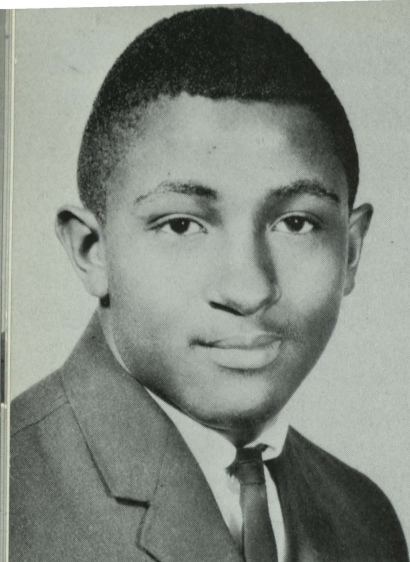

As the third branch of our educational tree sprouted, we were seen by our parents and teachers as mature and hard working seniors; we were flowers which had grown with tender care and we had displayed ourselves proudly. We found this to be our most exciting year. This year had a glorious start as our tree did. Nancy Gordy was given many compliments as being our most helpful flower in getting this year off to a good start. She was crowned "Miss Salisbury High 1965." We also gave our deepest thanks to those who helped make the senior play, "A Stranger Passes," successful. Recognition was given to Gene Waters who was the first boy from Salisbury High School to attend the "All State Chorus" held in Baltimore, Maryland. We wish the best of luck to the members of the many activities who have displayed their qualities so diligently.

As our tree swiftly grew and more buds sprouted, our final year of high school closed.

We wish to thank all of our teachers and parents who have provided the nourishments which have been so gratefully provided for us.

Class Will

We, the class of 1965, are about to depart from this our beloved Alma Mater, which has helped us to grow up as better individuals. We have been so influenced through the years by our devoted teachers that we strive to reach our goals, being mentally and physically sound, we do hereby submit this our last will and testament.

To the junior class we bequeath the understanding which we have nourished throughout the years and the ability to accept the guidance of their teachers.

To the sophomore class we bequeath a yearning to become successful, dignified, and industrious juniors and the initiative to strive to achieve dutiful tasks.

To the freshman class we bequeath the desire to want to walk down the road which we have con-structed for them and the ability to accept the seniors as big brothers and sisters.

To our principal we bequeath the ability to continue to help guide the students in the right direction and the ability to remember the wonderful years we have spent together.

To our teachers we bequeath the ability to continue teaching the students whom they will encounter during the years, and the patience to be able to contend with the demands of everyday school life.

To our parents we bequeath all our love, respect, happiness, and honor that they so worthily deserve.

To the next year's class president we bequeath our president's initiative and prominence and his ability to satisfy the students and faculty.

To the dramatics club we bequeath our varied and surprising talent and a talent that could interpret a character with so much originality that its own author wouldn't know it.

To our dear old school building itself we bequeath the peaceful quiet caused by our absence.

To the history of the Salisbury High School we bequeath our names as candidates for the hall of fame and the words and music of our class song which is very sentimental.

Finally, we do hereby name and appoint as the sale executors of this, our last will and testament, our class advisors, Mrs. Jeanette Chipman, Mrs. Flora Daniels, Mr. Robert Brown and Mr. David John-son.

In witness, whereof we, the class of 1965, the testator, have set our hand and seal on this 3rd day of June in the year of 1965.

Class Poem

Dear Salisbury High!
The Class of "65" is sadly leaving,
If you listen with your hearts,
You'll hear us grieving.

Our work is o'er here,
No longer shall we be protected from the problems of today,
No longer shall we remain to have our teachers lead us,
For now we must try our hand.

Fond memories of you will we be keeping,
We entered as freshmen
We're leaving as graduates
Being constantly fascinated by all that lies before us.

We say "Thanks" to our teachers, parents, and friends,
Deep in our hearts you'll always remain,
With your help
New heights we have been able to gain.

So now forward we will advance
And look back with the deepest of memories,
Remembering at all times that in our hearts
Dear Salisbury High will always stand.

"NOTHING IS MORE HONORABLE THAN A GRATEFUL HEART"
"Nihil esse grato animo honestius"

The yearbook staff takes this opportunity to express thanks to the many interested people who have made this yearbook possible. It is fitting that we first express our sincere appreciation to Mrs. Flora Daniels for her excellent guidance, patience, and time. Her tireless efforts and encouragement were an indispensable factor in editing our yearbook. We are also indebted to Mrs. Mozelle Frazier for her assistance and suggestions.

The publication of this yearbook would not have been possible if it were not for understanding teachers who were lenient and thoughtful enough to excuse students to work on the yearbook when a deadline was approaching or pictures were being taken. Special thanks go to Mr. David Johnson and Mr. James Polk for the literary assistances which they rendered so unselfishly and to our photographer Mr. Seward, of Photo-Lite Studio; also to Mr. Brooks, our principal and Mr. Waller our Vice-Principal for their constant support and encouragement.

We also want to express our sincere appreciation to the advertisers, patrons, and parents who have shown interest by co-operating in helping us to publish this yearbook.

We express our deepest gratitude to all of you and we hope that you will gain many fond memories from reading The Beacon.
